Summary

Zuri has a dynamic personality and intrinsic passion for performance on stage, on-screen or just around the house. She takes direction well and has a natural knack for memorization, consistency and is overall very much at home on set and backstage.

Zuri was cast as the lead in an independent short film "Trinity" which was in production throughout the Fall of 2017 and is in the final stages of post-production. She has also been cast in a corporate promotional video and several short films. She was most recently cast in a series of shorts that will be shooting Summer of 2018.

Zuri has been performing through Windy City Music Theater since age 7 and has attended a two week summer camp for the past four years. In addition to the camps and workshops, Zuri has performed in 6 stage performances over the past 4 years as part of Windy City Music Theater.
